Spanking

Spanking is a classic domination kink built on impact, rhythm and control. The submissive partner bends over and offers their ass to be struck - giving the dominant partner full authority over pain, speed, intensity and timing. Every slap blends pain with pleasure, humiliation with arousal, and discipline with desire. The body reacts instantly: heat, sting, tension, arching, the instinct to obey. Spanking becomes a ritual of surrender, a physical way for her to show obedience and for him to claim control of her body.

Face Slapping

Face slapping is a high-intensity dominance kink based on controlled pain, power, and psychological surrender. The submissive partner offers their face as a place of impact, allowing the dominant partner to decide the rhythm, intensity and timing of each slap. It blends humiliation, rough play, obedience, and deep trust - because even light slaps shift the dynamic instantly into a raw, charged, overwhelming place where she gives up control and lets him set the tone.

CMNF

CMNF is a power-play kink where the man stays fully dressed while the woman is naked. The turn-on comes from contrast: he remains in control, untouched, and composed, while she is exposed, vulnerable, and fully on display. It mixes voyeurism, dominance, obedience and the thrill of being looked at without being able to hide. This kink works especially well when the man is dressed elegantly (suit/black shirt, elegant shoes) and the woman remains fully naked.

Open-Mouth Gag

Open-Mouth Gag is a control-based kink where the submissive wears a gag that keeps the mouth open, limiting speech and control. The turn-on comes from vulnerability, exposure, and loss of control - the inability to close the mouth, swallow naturally, or respond freely. Every breath, every movement, every reaction becomes visible. This kink also heightens physical awareness — drooling, breathing, and sensitivity become part of the experience, making even simple actions feel more intense.

Anal Sex

Anal sex is a kink built on depth, pressure and full-body intensity. It's tighter, slower and more demanding than vaginal penetration, which instantly shifts the dynamic into something more dominant for the giver and more surrendered for the receiver. Every push feels heavier, deeper and more controlling - a mix of pain, stretch, vulnerability and raw power. Anal sex turns the receiving partner's entire body into an act of obedience.

Anal Toys

Anal toys focus on filling, stretching and controlling the ass - from small plugs to beads to larger, heavier toys. The moment something slides inside, the dynamic changes completely: the receiver becomes exposed, open and fully claimed. The dominant partner decides the size, depth, tempo and timing, while the submissive partner gives up control and lets their body react, tighten, shake or take more. It's a kink of pressure, fullness and psychological surrender.

Deepthroat

Deepthroat is a kink built on breath control, gag reflex, rhythm and surrender. Taking a cock deep into the throat - until it triggers gagging, drooling, tears or shaking - becomes an act of complete submission. How to prepare?

Use plenty of lube, relax your hips, breathe slowly, and start with a smaller toy so your body can open naturally. Make sure you've gone to the bathroom beforehand; if you want extra comfort, a quick rinse with a small amount of warm water is enough.

☐ Lay on your back and let him slide a small, lubed plug into your ass. Hold it inside for 1 minute while breathing slowly.

☐ Get on all fours and let him slide a medium toy (plug or anal beads) in and out of your ass slowly.
After that, keep the toy inside and crawl around the room for 3 minutes.

☐ Let your partner play with your ass using different toys and sizes.

Ball Gag

A ball gag silences the submissive partner completely. With her mouth forced open around the ball, she can't speak clearly, can't protest, and can't control her drool. Her breathing changes, her moans become muffled, and the helpless sound turns the whole scene into deeper subspace. Seeing her gagged, drooling and unable to close her mouth gives the dominant partner full psychological control — pure objectification mixed with obedience.

Begging

Begging is a submission kink where she must ask — desperately, repeatedly, properly — for what she wants. Permission to touch, to move, to cum, to serve. Begging exposes her need, her weakness, her hunger, and turns desire into obedience. The more she begs, the deeper she falls into the dynamic. The dominant controls the moment with silence, teasing, denial or conditions until she breaks and begs exactly the way he wants.

Punishments

Tasks for Her:

☐ Stand in front of him and let him choose one light punishment for your "disobedience" - for example: 5 spanks, kneeling for 1 minute, holding a position. You must accept it without arguing.

☐ Kneel with your hands behind your back while he gives you a harsher punishment, such as: a stronger spanking, hair pulling, face slaps, forced stillness. You must keep eye contact or look down when he orders it.

☐ Let him choose a full punishment scene: he positions you (bent over, on your knees, or on all fours) and delivers a mix of punishments — spanking, slapping, holding you down, verbal correction — until he decides you've "learned your lesson." Afterward, you have to give him a blowjob as an apology.

Humiliation

Tasks for Her:

☐ Stand naked in front of him while he stays fully dressed. Let him walk around you slowly and tell you what he would do to you in a humiliating, degrading way. You must keep your hands at your sides and not cover yourself.

☐ Kneel in front of him and let him make you say something humiliating about yourself, such as: "I'm your dirty toy." "I exist to be used." You must repeat the line three times, looking up at him.

☐ Stand or kneel completely naked while he inspects, grabs, spreads or positions your body however he likes. He verbally humiliates you while you stay still - then you must thank him for degrading you like that by giving him a blowjob.

Begging

Tasks for Her:

☐ Kneel with your hands tied behind your back and beg him to let you give him a blowjob — while he ignores you on purpose. Keep begging until he finally gives you permission.

☐ Be tied up in the position he chooses during hard sex. Beg him to slow down or stop as part of the scene - he continues at his pace until you use the safeword, and you beg, whine, and plead the entire time, staying in character.

☐ Let him use dirty, degrading names during sex — words like "my whore", "my toy", "dirty girl", "fuckdoll". You must respond with moans or "yes", staying fully in the scene.

☐ Give him a blowjob with your hands tied behind your back while he calls you whatever he wants -"slut", "bitch", "cocksucker", "my little whore", etc. You keep sucking without stopping, reacting only with your mouth and your eyes.

Objectification

Objectification is a power-play kink where one partner is treated as an object — something to be used, admired, displayed, or controlled. The turn-on comes from losing identity and control, becoming something that exists purely for the other person's pleasure. The focus shifts from "who you are" to what you are in that moment — a body, a toy, a possession. It often blends dominance, obedience, and detachment, where the dominant decides how the submissive is positioned, touched, or used, while the submissive lets go of control and embraces being reduced to a role.

Bratting

Bratting is a playful defiance kink where the submissive teases, provokes, tests and pushes the dominant on purpose. Eye-rolling, smart comments, ignoring commands, doing the opposite, pretending not to care — all designed to trigger discipline, punishment or control. It's tension, challenge and chemistry. She resists just enough to make him take charge harder. Bratting exists for one purpose: to be put back in her place.

Following Orders

Following orders is a control kink where the submissive performs exactly what the dominant commands — instantly, precisely, without hesitation. Sit, kneel, spread, hold still, open your mouth, don't touch, look at me. Every instruction shifts power deeper into his hands. Obedience becomes arousal, and completing each order becomes an act of devotion. It's simple: he speaks, she obeys.

Edging

Edging is a denial kink where the submissive is brought right to the edge of orgasm — and then stopped. Again and again. The frustration builds pressure in her entire body: shaking, whining, begging, clenching, losing control. The dominant decides how close, how long, how many times, and whether she's ever allowed to cum. Edging pushes her into a state of desperation that's both painful and intoxicating — a perfect mix of torment and obedience.

Bratting

Tasks for Her:

☐ Follow his simple command, for example "kneel." Once you're kneeling, start teasing him lightly - roll your eyes, give him a smug smile, or say something provocative like: "Is that all you've got?" Do this until he gives you a small corrective action (grabbing your chin, your hair, or giving you a firmer command).

☐ Kneel in front of him and disobey a simple order on purpose — for example: he says "Open your mouth", and you shake your head with a bratty grin. Keep teasing him until he grabs your chin or hair and makes you obey.

☐ During sex or a blowjob, brat on purpose — pull away, whine, smirk, say "Make me." Let him overpower you, pin you down, or force your head into position until you stop bratting and finally give in.

Tasks for Her:

☐ Lie on your back, legs open, and let him play with your body without asking anything - pulling your hips where he wants, spreading your legs wider, touching your lips and pussy, positioning your arms. You do not speak, do not react, do not resist — you're simply there to be arranged.

☐ Let him tie you up, put on a blindfold and a ball gag. You become his sex doll. He will fuck you however he wants while you stay silent and as motionless as possible, letting him use your body completely.

Tasks for Her:

☐ Let him touch you or stimulate you until you're close to climax. Right before you orgasm, he pulls his hand away - you must keep your body still and breathe deeply until he starts again.

☐ Let him control your orgasm completely during scene. You are tied as he edges you over and over, ignoring your begging, keeping you shaking and desperate - you only orgasm when he gives you permission, and if he says no, you must hold it back no matter how close you are.

Prostate Milking

Prostate milking is an intimate, dominating kink where she takes control of the most sensitive part of his body. Whether with fingers or a toy, she stimulates his prostate until he leaks, shakes, or orgasms hands-free. The vulnerability is total — he's open, exposed, and unable to hide how intensely his body reacts. She controls every wave of pleasure, and he can do nothing but take it and obey.

CBT
(Cock and Ball Torture)

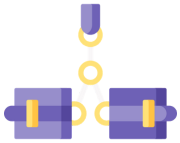

CBT is a masochistic femdom kink where she uses pressure, slapping, squeezing, impact, or tools to torment his cock and balls. He kneels, legs spread, while she decides the pain level: teasing, punishing, or overwhelming. His reactions — gasps, flinches, whines - become part of her power. The mix of pain, control, and arousal reminds him that his most sensitive parts belong to her.

Bondage

Bondage for a male sub means surrender of movement, control, and agency. She ties him down, cuffs him, pins him, or restrains him in positions that expose him and prevent resistance. Bound and helpless, he becomes a tool for her pleasure: something to command, tease, ride, use, or punish. Being immobilized forces him into pure submission — his body stays where she puts it, and he exists to be acted upon.

Tasks for Him:

☐ Lie on your back or bend over and let her slide a lubricated finger inside you slowly. She massages your prostate gently while you stay relaxed and still.

☐ Get into a position she chooses (on all fours, on your back with legs up). Let her milk your prostate at her pace — you are not allowed to touch your cock or move your hips.

☐ Stay tied up while she uses her fingers or a toy to milk your prostate until you leak uncontrollably. You must take every wave of pleasure without closing your legs or pulling away.

☐ Lie on your back while she brings you close to orgasm with her hand or a toy. Right before you finish, she pulls away — you must stay still and not touch yourself.

☐ Let her take full control of your orgasm. You are tied up as she edges you repeatedly during a handjob — ignoring your begging — and you are only allowed to cum if she permits you. If she says "no", you must hold it back or serve ruined orgasm.

Collar and Leash

A collar and leash place him exactly where he belongs — beneath her authority. When she puts the collar around his neck, he becomes hers in the most literal sense. The leash lets her pull him closer, lead him, position him, correct him, or make him wait at her feet. Every tug rewires his body into obedience. He doesn't walk; he follows. He doesn't decide; she guides. The collar marks ownership, the leash enforces it.

Servitude

Servitude is the kink of complete behavioral submission. He exists to make her life easier, more pleasurable, more comfortable. He kneels to remove her shoes, he massages her legs, he fetches items, cleans, prepares, holds, carries — whatever she commands. He takes pride in meeting her needs before she even speaks them. His pleasure comes from usefulness; his reward is her approval. Servitude transforms him from partner to asset: a man trained to serve.

Impact play is the art of striking his body for her pleasure and his submission. She uses her hands, paddle, crop, cane, flogger, belt — whatever suits her mood. Impact play gives her rhythm, control, and intensity while giving him the high of being dominated, punished, shaped, and owned by her hands.

High-Heel Worship

High-heel worship combines elegance, fetish, and power. He kneels while she towers above him in heels — a symbol of her superiority. He kisses the heel, licks the toe, breathes against the leather, and submits to the sharp, dangerous beauty of her shoes. She may press the heel against his lips, chest, or cock, reminding him who stands above and who kneels below. The worship of her heels becomes the worship of her authority.

Objectification turns him into a thing for her use. Not a partner — a prop. A toy. Furniture. A tool. She positions him, displays him, uses him, or ignores him entirely. Spitting

Spitting is raw, degrading dominance. She spits on his face, into his mouth, on his chest, cock, or body — marking him, claiming him, humiliating him with a single gesture. Praising Praising a male sub is a reward kink — a form of psychological conditioning. When he serves well, obeys perfectly, or pleases her sexually, she gives him approval: "Good boy." "That's it." "You're doing exactly what I want." Her praise hits him harder than touch. It floods him with warmth, need, and devotion. Praising reinforces the dynamic: he works for her pleasure, and her approval becomes his addiction.

Degradation

Degradation strips away his pride and leaves only obedience. She uses harsh language, mocking tone, or body-focused insults — calling him her slut, toy, bitch, servant, or worthless little thing — to push him into a deeper mental submission.
